

Remember your title.

The screenshot shows the 'Haribo bar chart' workspace. At the top, there is a title bar with a microphone icon and the text 'Haribo bar chart'. Below the title bar is a large white canvas. On the left side of the canvas, there is a table with the following data:

colour	number
Hearts	11
Eggs	8
Bears	22
Cola Bottles	5
Rings	13

Below the table, there are several icons for different chart types: 'table', 'pie', 'bar', 'line', and 'block'. The 'bar' icon is highlighted with a red checkmark. At the bottom right of the canvas, there is a message: 'Activate Windows Go to System in Control Panel to activate Windows.'

Once you have complete the table. Click 'bar' to create your chart.

The screenshot shows the 'Haribo bar chart' workspace with the bar chart generated from the table. The chart has a vertical axis labeled 'number' ranging from 0 to 30 in increments of 3. The horizontal axis is labeled 'colour' and has five categories: 'Hearts', 'Eggs', 'Bears', 'Cola Bottles', and 'Rings'. The bars are colored as follows: Hearts (red), Eggs (orange), Bears (yellow), Cola Bottles (green), and Rings (blue). The 'bar' icon in the left sidebar is now checked. At the bottom right of the canvas, there is a message: 'Activate Windows Go to System in Control Panel to activate Windows.'
