

Thursday 1st April 2021

WAL edit and improve our writing:

My dearest husband! A handsome man the bravest alive, too thou will become the most amazing King in the world. I am determined to have that shiny gold crown laying on my head. It's every girls dream to have a crown on their heads and I was choosen. Make my dream come true this once. Prove ~~you~~ thou are mighty!

I have satisfied thou so it is the least thou can do for me. Thou better not feel doubtful. If thou don't kill the King the world will end! Believe your beautiful wife, thou will be King. Show your strength and bravery to me and everyone in this country. I know it will be strange without King Duncan but you have me. If you don't kill him he would be here for another 96 years! Do you agree? Can't you tell I am desperate?

Oh Macbeth! Please? Thou art stronger than a sold soldier. Just be conscience of time. Macbeth you'll reign the world. My lord do this for me. Do not upset me or I will kill thou with one finger myself!

Remember what the witches told you? The thing is we don't have patience, time is against us. My heart will shatter in thousands of peices.