

My dearest Fa,

I don't know what to do without you. The bear is still after me, and if it finds me, I know I won't be able to fend it off. Just like I told you, I'm heading for the mountains, even though I have no idea where I'm going. I am trying to stay positive. I'm scared, I've never been on my own before. I wish you were still here to answer all my questions. There is so much I don't know. Like why did we leave the wolf clan? Or why didn't you tell me any of this? I miss you and I wish I could've saved you somehow when you were alive.

You were the best father, and I am so grateful for you. I don't know how I'm going to live without you, especially since the bear is still trying to find me. You told me to look behind me when I'm hunting, and I will always keep that in mind. I just wanted to say thank you, for everything you have done for me.

Although you are not with me anymore, I will always remember the lessons you have taught me, to help me survive. I haven't eaten in so long, and I don't know how much longer I can last without food.

You've always been my role model and I really miss you, I promise to keep my oath to find the mountains or die trying. Hopefully we will see each other again someday.

Your loving son,

Torak
