

THE ORDINARY OCEAN!

In the wooden boat,
Jelly-fish are looking,
Into a solid window,
Quickly, it breaks,
In they go.

On the grey rock,
Green algae was stuck,
Wouldn't get off,
Stuck forever,
On the grey rock.

Between the seaweed and the mischievous shark,
A shiny fish is looking gracefully,
With its tail swaying high,
Looking like a delighted dog,
With its tail swaying high.

Amongst the coloured creatures,
A slow starfish trots,
Doing starjumps, cacturheels and backflips,
The spectacular, splendid starfish!!!
