

Oxford owls log in details.

Please remember to use the 'Class log in' tab at the top of the page

Cornflake coin - https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/api/digital_books/1235.html

After reading the book, answer the following questions.

- 1. What is the prize for finding the oldest coin?
- 2. What does it say on the first coin that Kerry finds?
- 3. Why does the Roman coin turn up now in such a shallow hole, after all these years?
- 4. What other treasure might be found in the ground where Kerry found the coin?
- 5. Do you have anything very old or special at home?
- 6. Why might your 'treasure' be different to that of one of your peers?
