

Books - by Alycia Virgin

They can bring out any emotion,
your soul will jump into the adventure.

Your perfect book will call your name,
all you have to do is look.

Books can be sad,
or even make you mad.

The wonderful words will fill your mind,
with imagination,

the smooth pages go flip, flop as
you turn them.

Read anything as long as you like it.

Just read!
