Dear parents/carers,

Pegasus Museum Day

We are very excited to see the return of Museum Day here at Whitehorse Manor Infants. For those of you who are not familiar with Museum Day, it a day of celebrating and showcasing the children's brilliant thematic work.

Next week, children will be taking part in thematic week. This curriculum combines art, design and technology, geography and history into one topic. During these sessions, children are encouraged to work independently to create well-presented thematic books that they can be proud of.

To celebrate all of their hard work, we are opening 'The Pegasus Museum' on Friday 10th February, for one day only. Parents and carers are invited to visit the museum between 9:05am – 10:00am. The main museum will be set up in the Infant Hall and will give you the opportunity to look at all the hard work that has been happening in during thematic lesson. There will even been some expert guides on hand to answer any questions you might have. Once you have finished admiring the fantastic work on display, you will be able to join your child in their classrooms for more thematic themed activities.

We hope you can join us for this exciting day.

Thank you for your support.
